Dear Mr. Gibson:

Enclosed with this letter is an amendment to the October 15, 1996 quarterly report for the Faleomavaega for Congress Committee. The amendment includes changes in four areas which were incorrectly reported in the original report.

Based on the information available to me at the time the report was filed, it was my understanding that a $1,000.00 wire transfer made from the Committee's account in Washington, DC to the Committee's account in American Samoa had not been credited as of September 30, 1996. Upon reconciliation of the account in American Samoa it was determined that a deposit in the amount of $958.28 credited on a different day was the amount credited for the transfer. In the original report, this deposit was listed as contributions from individuals on line 11(a)(ii), and the amount of the transfer ($1,000.00) was included as cash on hand at the end of the reporting period. This amendment reduces the amount of contributions from individuals by $958.28, reduces cash on hand by $1,000.00, and increases the amount of operating expenditures on line 17 by the amount of the fees assessed on the amount transferred ($1,000.00 - $958.28 = $41.72).

The original report incorrectly reported a $150.00 in-kind contribution from the DCCC as a contribution from an individual on line 11(a)(iii). This amendment reduces the amount on line 11(a)(iii) by $150.00, and includes that amount on line 11(b) as a contribution from a political party committee. The in-kind contribution is itemized on Schedules A and B.

Contributions to the Faleomavaega for Congress Committee are not tax deductible.
